

Name: Andrea Jones

Title: Headteacher

Reasons for becoming a governor at Longdendale:

As Headteacher of Longdendale High School, I am required to serve on the governing body to help provide the strategic, leadership, management and operation of all aspects of the school.

Skills and background:

Prior to working in education, I had 9 years experience working in international sales and marketing for private manufacturing companies. Having trained as a French and German teacher, I am proud to have been part of the Longdendale team for the past 14 years in a variety of leadership roles in both curriculum and inclusion. These included Head of MFL, Director of the Language College Specialism and Assistant Headteacher. This experience included 5 years as Deputy Headteacher with responsibility for teaching and learning, curriculum and student progress. As Headteacher I am committed to ensuring that all of our students are offered every possibility to succeed in all areas of school life and that they have an enjoyable and enriched experience during their time here.
