

Year 9 – Philosophy and Religion

Curriculum intent	In Year 9, the Philosophy and Religion curriculum is designed to continue to build on the Golden Threads of knowledge of main world religions and worldviews. This investigation enables pupils to explore issues from different religious examples of engagement with conflict and peace (such as terrorism, jihad, the Khalsa, Just War Theory and pacifism). Pupils consider the teaching of religious texts from Sikh, Muslim and Christian sources in relation to peace and conflict and how they can be interpreted. This investigation explores why Buddhists are relatively unconcerned about the idea of God, why this is important for Christians and Muslims, and why atheists reject the idea of God. The concept of proof is examined alongside related ideas about evidence, belief, perspective and interpretation. Pupils examine different Christian views about why people suffer and compare them with Buddhist views. They weigh up how far the religious answers to the question of suffering are universally useful.
