May	Mental Health Awareness month 	The Mental Health Foundation created the event 22 years ago. Each year we continue to set the theme, organise and host the week. The event has grown to become one of the biggest awareness weeks across the UK and globally.	Invite students to reflect on their current achievements. Don't just focus on academic, sport and musical achievements but include personal achievements, too. This could include things like getting to school independently, staying away from home, managing friendship.	Throughout May
June	Pride Month 	Pride Month is a month-long celebration that recognizes the LGBTQ+ community and their contributions to society. It is a time to acknowledge the challenges faced by this community and to stand in solidarity with their fight for equality, acceptance, and human rights. Pride Month is a joyful and colourful display of love, unity, and resilience, with events and activities that promote inclusivity, educate the public, and celebrate the diversity of sexual orientations and gender identities.	Engaging in Pride Month conversations and activities allows students to explore the significance of this commemoration for the LGBTQ+ community. It creates a safe and inclusive space for students to ask questions and share their thoughts. They'll also gain a deeper understanding of the challenges and triumphs faced by this community.  A large range of LGBTQ+ books will be available for students. Throughout this month we will be promoting books such as Heartstopper which focus on these communities. Heartstopper is also a series available on Netflix.	Throughout June
